

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. EPITOME

WHAT a jumble of names ! there are some that I knew
As a brother is known : to-day
Gone I know not where—nay, I hardly care,
For their places are full, and they—
What climes they have ranged : how much they're changed !
Time, place, and pursuits assist
In transforming them ; stay where you are : Adieu !
You are all in the Old School List.

There are some who did nothing at school, much since ;
And others much then, since naught.
There are middle-aged men, grown bald since then ;
Some have travelled, and some have fought ;
And some have written, and some are bitten
With strange new faiths : desist
From tracking them—brother, or priest, or prince,
They are all in the Old School List.

There's a grave old lawyer in King's Bench Walk,
Whose clients are passing few :
He seldom speaks—in those lonely walks,
What on earth can he find to do ?
Well, he stroked the Eight—what a splendid fate !
And the Newcastle barely missed :
“ A future Lord Chancellor ! ” so we'd talk
In the days of the Old School List.

There were several duffers and several bores,
Whose faces I've half forgot,
Whom I lived among, when the world was young,
And who talked “ no end of rot ” :

Are they now little clerks who stroll in the parks
Or scribble with grimy fist?
Or rich little peers who hire Scotch moors?—
Well, they're all in the Old School List.

There were some who were certain to prosper and thrive,
And certain to do no more,
Who were "capital chaps," and, though moderate saps,
Would never stay in after four.
Now day after day they are packed away,
After being connubially kissed,
To work in the City from ten to five :
There they are in the Old School List.

"Musæ Etonenses," by J. K. Stephen.
Published in the Vol. entitled Quo, Musa, tendis ?

P R E F A C E

IN completing the second half of a century of ETON SCHOOL LISTS I have taken the liberty of adopting, in lieu of the usual Table of Contents, some lines on the first part written by an Etonian of great promise, who died only too early for his numerous friends.

It is totally impossible that I can expect to add even a Supplementary List to the present work, but I hope in course of time some other Etonian may be found to take my place, with one caution, however, that he be not tempted to carry the work down to too late a period, when many of the boys whose names will come into his new list have hardly left school.

Several Etonians have made me offers in the past if I would only show them the way how. It is simple enough. It requires only time and patience, but on this account it is not a matter to be lightly taken in hand. My recipe is as follows : First make a careful copy of the Lists it is proposed to annotate, avoiding all others for the time being, to save confusion. Next make a careful copy of the Headmaster's Entry Lists—I shall never forget the facilities given me by the present Headmaster for accomplishing this part of my work. Then make an index of the whole, to which the result of inquiries had better be confined as long as possible,—and you are ready to begin. Such works as Kelly's "Handbook of the Titled Classes," "corrected by themselves" year by year, Debrett's "Peerage," Crockford's "Clerical Directory," and Whitaker's "Naval and Military Directory" will be of the greatest service, after which you must trust to such private inquiries of the members of Eton families or contemporaries as you can make.

My best thanks are due to all who have so kindly helped me at different stages ; but they may be counted by hundreds, and a large number are anonymous, especially of those who have corrected my proof-sheets. For these reasons I have been obliged to deny myself the pleasure of referring to any by name. Two ladies of my own family who have helped me from the beginning to the end deserve to have their names recorded on my title-page.

I need hardly say that I shall always be glad to receive any additions or corrections to the present work, which shall be carefully recorded for future use.
